

TIM CHEESEBROW

AMERICANA / FOLK ROCK

SINGER-SONGWRITER

WWW.CHEESEBROWMUSIC.COM

BIO

He took the stage in his first performance wearing a shiny blue shirt and top hat, belting some Tom Petty song under the big lights for all he was worth...after feeling that rush there was no going back. Tim started writing songs at 15 as a way to make sense of the world. He studied the craft in earnest while getting his degree in classical music composition, and cemented his style while volunteering at a monastery and school near New Orleans. 20 years later and he's still at it, playing over 120 shows per year. He now has six full-length solo albums under his belt, a published book on songwriting, and is showing no signs of slowing down.

Tim's music layers an eclectic mix of styles to create a sound with modern grooves, catchy melodies, and a sense of being grounded in deep roots. He's known for his percussive guitar work, capo-wizardry, and an expressive voice big enough to fill any room.

Tim's lyrics are heartfelt and honest, bringing audiences with him to explore concepts of family, self-doubt, depression, hope, grief, and the many facets of love. He looks to music as a source of healing and puts that magic to work at each performance so listeners leave with more than they expected to find. Tim's calm and passionate presence, combined with his thoughtful songcraft, make him a favorite of intimate listening rooms.

ALBUM NOTES

The Well Traveled Unknown is Tim's sixth solo album release. The songs in this collection focus on his personal struggles and aspirations as a young parent and artist trying to remain positive in the face of depression and the influence of an increasingly strange and divided world.

Through his non-profit, Discover Music, Tim became friends with the guys at Above Pete's Garage, a non-profit in Detroit, MI doing similar work teaching young people to write and record songs. Founder Pete Bishop invited Tim out for an intense week of recording in which they laid down all the tracks for the album. They continue to work on multiple projects together, both musical and educational.
